

Table of Contents

Foreword Rob Davies	1
Foreword Bridget O’Laughlin	4
Preface Saleem Badat and Vasu Reddy	13
Part One: Ruth First and Activist Research
Chapter 1 – Understanding Activist Research Saleem Badat and Vasu Reddy	17
Chapter 2 – Ruth First and the Nature of Activist Research Saleem Badat	33
Chapter 3 – Ruth First’s Activist Research and its Challenges Saleem Badat	57
Part Two: Objectivity and Activist Research
Chapter 4 – Towards a Theory of Objectivity for Activist Nancy Cartwright, Samuel Foglesong, Katherine Furman, Byron Hyde, Research: Gabriel Nyberg, Karina Ortiz Villa and Helena Slanickova	91
Part Three: Research and Activism
Chapter 5 – Rick Turner and Engaged Political Philosophy as Activist Research Christine Hobden	129

Chapter 6 – Ruth First in the Twenty-First Century: Activist Research in the Age of Climate Change Janet Cherry	143
Chapter 7 – Research as an Act of Activist-Intellectual Resistance: Two Case Studies of Oral Histories and Archiving in South Africa Dale T. McKinley	165
Chapter 8 – Critical Sensemaking: Negotiations, Contradictions and Compromises of a Feminist Activist Scholar Asanda-Jonas Benya	181
Chapter 9 – Lawyers and Activism in the Context of the Decolonial Turn Ntando Sindane	201
Chapter 10 – Systemic Imperatives Activist Scholarship in South Africa: The Study of the San and Khoi Research Centre, University of Cape Town June Bam	219
Chapter 11 – Intr/Activism Scholar/Activist -Abilities, Simultaneously Cutting Together/Apart Petro du Preez	241
Chapter 12 – The Ruse of Political Neutrality: Critical Research, Value Creation, Graffiti and Political Intervention at an Art Institution in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa Ingrid Bamberg	259
Author Biographies	281
Index	285
